

UILANI MOORE-WESLEY RUBY AWARD

Uilani Moore-Wesley is well-known on the Mendocino Coast for her compassion, and being a good listener and life counselor. She's made a difference in many lives; particularly women. She said she became aware of her ability to empower women when she was an elementary school mom and asked the moms to listen and share themselves. We asked Ui what in her life motivates her, and she said she views people as a procession of teachers who come in and out of her life. Just as she helps them put their broken life back together, they help her and empower her to deal with her own life. Everyone becomes a part of her tribe automatically.

Ui is known for dancing and teaching hula-culture. She is a rare gem and beautiful person. Soroptimist of Noyo Sunrise is proud to name Ui Moore-Wesley as the Ruby Award winner for 2021. The club will make a donation in her name to the charity of her choice. She has chosen Fortunate Farm which donates food to First Nation residents and low income families.
